EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Pagano on February 20, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

- a. Claims 2, 3 and 4 have been cancelled;
- b. Claim 1, line 5: "the" before "digital" has been replaced by --a-- for antecedent purposes;
- c. Claim 1, line 6: "a" before "digital" has been replaced by --the--; and "a" before "message" has been replaced by --the-- for antecedent purposes; and
- d. In claim 1, line 7: --a mode switch for switching modes between the display of the digital, numerical hour and the message, indicative of the approximate time and a display of precise time-- has been added to overcome the cited prior art rejection.

Reason for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The reference to US Patent 6,307,813 to Leggio shows a timepiece having a face (12) including a display for displaying a digital hour and message, wherein the digital hour and message indicative of approximate time; a means (13) behind the face (12) for keeping the exact time; a microprocessor chip/conversion unit (see column 3, lines 36-37). Applicant's claimed invention display's a digital, numerical hour and message indicative of approximate time and a mode switch for switching modes between the display of the digital, numerical hour and the message, indicative of the approximate time and a display of precise time. Furthermore, the timepiece of Leggio does not have a mode switch and there seems to be no motivation to modify the device shown in Leggio to accommodate a mode switch for switching modes between a display of approximate time and precise time.

Claims 5-10 have been found to be allowable as being dependent upon the allowable claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jeanne-Marguerite Goodwin whose telephone number is (571) 272-2104.
